

Privacy Policy – AIकर

Effective Date: 1/6/2026

AIकर (“we”, “our”, or “us”) is committed to protecting the privacy, confidentiality, and security of the personal and financial information entrusted to us. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, store, process, and protect information provided by users in connection with Income Tax Return (ITR) filing, tax compliance, and related professional services.

1. Information We Collect

We may collect and process the following categories of information:

- Personal identification information, including name, PAN, Aadhaar, date of birth, contact details, and address.
- Financial information, including bank account details, salary information, income records, investment proofs, tax documents, and supporting financial records.
- Documents uploaded by users for tax filing, verification, compliance, and related professional services.
- Technical information such as device information, IP address, browser type, and usage logs for security and service improvement purposes.

2. Purpose of Data Collection

Information collected by AIकर is used solely for:

- Preparation, verification, processing, and filing of Income Tax Returns.
- Tax planning, compliance, advisory, and related professional services.
- Identity verification and client onboarding.
- Communication regarding tax filings, compliance requirements, and service updates.
- Maintaining records required under applicable laws and professional standards.
- Improving service quality, security, and operational efficiency.

3. Data Sharing and Disclosure

AIकर does not sell, rent, trade, or disclose personal information to third parties for marketing purposes.

Information may be shared only:

- With government authorities, regulatory bodies, or statutory agencies where required by law.
- With authorized intermediaries, service providers, or technology partners involved in the tax filing process.
- When expressly authorized by the user.
- To comply with legal obligations, court orders, or regulatory requirements.

4. Data Storage and Security

Client information and documents are stored within secure systems controlled by AIकर and protected through appropriate technical and organizational safeguards.

Security measures may include:

- Access controls and role-based permissions.
- Authentication and authorization mechanisms.
- Encryption of data during transmission and storage where applicable.
- Secure backup and disaster recovery procedures.
- Continuous monitoring and security management practices.

Client documents are not intentionally made publicly accessible and are not uploaded to public repositories or unsecured platforms.

5. Access to Information

Access to client information is restricted to authorized personnel, employees, consultants, and professionals who require such access to perform professional services and who are bound by confidentiality obligations.

6. Data Retention

We retain information and documents only for as long as necessary to:

- Provide requested services.
- Comply with legal, regulatory, audit, accounting, and professional obligations.
- Resolve disputes and enforce agreements.

Upon completion of the applicable retention period, information may be securely archived, anonymized, or permanently deleted.

7. Confidentiality Commitment

AIकर maintains professional confidentiality in accordance with applicable laws, regulatory requirements, and professional standards, including the ethical obligations applicable to tax and financial service professionals.

8. User Rights

Subject to applicable laws, users may have the right to:

- Request access to their personal information.
- Request correction of inaccurate information.
- Request deletion of information where legally permissible.
- Withdraw consent where processing is based on consent.
- Raise concerns regarding data handling practices.

Requests may be submitted using the contact details provided below.

9. Third-Party Services

Our services may interact with government portals, authorized filing intermediaries, cloud infrastructure providers, and other service providers necessary for delivering tax and compliance services. Such third parties process information only to the extent required for providing their services.

10. Security Disclaimer

While AIकर implements reasonable industry-standard security measures, no electronic storage system, internet transmission, or digital platform can guarantee absolute security.

Accordingly, AIकर shall not be liable for unauthorized access, cyberattacks, data breaches, service interruptions, or losses arising from circumstances beyond its reasonable control, including force majeure events, internet failures, governmental actions, or unauthorized acts of third parties despite the implementation of reasonable safeguards.

11. Changes to this Privacy Policy

AIकर reserves the right to update or modify this Privacy Policy from time to time. Updated versions will be published with a revised effective date.
